

- Medications
- Diltiazem
 - Lasix
 - Klor-Con
 - Levothyroxine
 - Mucinex
 - Metoprolol Tartrate
 - Detrol
 - MiraLax
 - Trazodone
 - Acetaminophen

Student Name Eduard Matsko Client Initials M.M. Age 90 Gender Female Admit Date 9/10/2011
 Allergies Augmentin, Celebrax, Cipro, Crestor, Equanil, and Zithromax
 Diet Regular Activity Assist with 1 Braden Score 13

- Lab values
- RBC - 2.88 million/mm³ (Low)
 - Hemoglobin - 8.5 g/dl (Low)
 - Hematocrit - 27.6% (Low)
 - BUN - 23 mg/dl (High)
 - WBC - 4.2 thousand/mm³ (Low)
 - Protein - 5.4 g/dl (Low)
 - Albumin - 3.2 (Low)
 - HDL - 27 mg/dL (Low)

Admitting Diagnosis

Closed trochanteric fracture of the right femur and hip discomfort

- Responded to touch and the calling out of her name.
- Identified by name and date of birth.
- Her speech was clear.
- Took her some time to reply to a question or follow a command
- She was alert, but would gradually lose attention.
- She was A&Ox1 and could only relate to person, but not to place or time.
- M.M. wears glasses.
- She could follow my finger with her eyes.
- Both her eyes were at size 3 and both eyes reacted briskly to light.
- Her Galsgow Coma Scale score was a 14 with her eye response being 4, her verbal response a 4, and her motor response a 6.
- Her upper and lower extremities were both weak.
- Her hand grasps were strong.
- Sensation was absent in the feet.
- When asked to point to objects, M.M. took some time to perform the actions and at times did not perform it at all.
- Sitting wheel chair.
- Her breathing, breathing pattern, and effort were normal.
- No accessory muscle use was seen.
- No cough was noted.
- Lung sounds were auscultated anterior and posteriorly and were clear.

- Her respirations were 20 breathes per minute.
- Her pulse ox was 98%.
- The client's heart rhythm was rhythmic and normal.
- Her radial pulses were both +2.
- Her dorsalis pedis pulses were both a +1.
- Her pulse was 46 beats per minute.
- Her blood pressure was 167/64.
- No JVD was seen.
- Capillary refill and skin turgor were both less than 3 seconds.
- Non-pitting edema was noted bilaterally in the feet
- Her skin was pink, warm, and dry.
- Her skin was intact and no areas of redness were noted.
- Her Braden Score was a 13 with the moisture score being a 4, the mobility score being a 2, the activity score a 2, the nutrition score a 3, and the friction score a 2.
- M.M. is incontinent sometimes.
- Oral mucosa was pink and dry.
- Tongue was pink.
- Her abdomen was flat and soft to the touch and no tenderness was noted.
- Her bowel sounds were present in all four quadrants.
- She had bladder movement during the shift and the urine was yellow and aroma was normal.
- Her temperature was 98.4F.
- Pain of 0 out of 10.

- Past Medical/Surgical History
- Coronary atherosclerosis
 - Osteoarthritis
 - Osteoporosis
 - Hypothyroidism
 - Hyperlipidemia
 - Anxiety
 - History of ramus fracture
 - Depressive disorder
 - Hemorrhoids without complications
 - Hypertension
 - Dementia
 - Lack of coordination
 - Closed inter-trochanteric weakness of muscle
 - Walking difficulty

- Nursing diagnoses
- Impaired memory
 - Bowel incontinence
 - Risk for injury